

I/O Automation Inc. provides professional engineering, installation, calibration, troubleshooting, repairs, maintenance, consulting, panel manufacturing, instrument sales, and project management in Automation, Energy Management, Mechanical, and Electrical Industry.

Our goal is to provide outstanding service and quality of workmanship to our customers. Our aim is to save energy while maintaining optimal building conditions. I/O Automation Inc. professional staff is equipped to offer technical services at your site to conduct professional inspections, monitoring, and job cost advice.

The company is dedicated to provide contractors and end users with the best products and services available to satisfy their needs in the industry. Our commitment is to secure and keep customer who will feel more like our partners than our customers. This can only be achieved if we are constantly providing our unquestionable commitment to honesty, reliability and the maintaining of extraordinary technical capabilities.

I/O Automation of P.R., Inc aspires to be a leader industry in Puerto Rico and Latin America, whose commitment and dedicated service is based on unique technical capabilities of its team work and the quality of the products offered.